

Psalm 24

Priscilla Townsend

Nathan Townsend

1. The earth is the Lord's and its fullness is great, and
 2. Who shall ascend to the hill of the Lord, and
 3. He that is pure in his heart and his mind, and 4. This man shall receive the blessing from God, and His are the nations of man. For who may stand there before Him? For clean are the deeds of his hands, For right-eousness shall God im-part. Whose When

He hath estab-lish-ed all in its place, and not all may come to His ho-ly place, and soul is not lift-ed un-to vain things, and through faith we trust Him and seek His face, the all live be-neath His com-mand Oh come not be-fore Him with sin!

 faith-ful are his words and his plans.
 Lord may dwell in our own hearts!

Refrain

18 lift up your heads ye gates and ye doors, and 22

the King of glo - ry shall come. The 26

Lord of Host He is might - ty and strong. Let 30

Him in your heart make His home.